The Walnut Chamber of Commerce believes that your success is Walnut’s success. Our mission is to enhance our town's economic well-being and improve the business climate through active civic participation. By joining the Chamber, you become part of a network dedicated to making our town a better place to live and work.

As a member, you will benefit from promotion, educational opportunities, and networking. We are dedicated to promoting our Chamber businesses goods and services, and planning events designed to drive foot traffic directly to their door. This year, we are hosting a Small Business Workshop covering vital topics like small business taxes, marketing, AI tools, and grant writing.

We also welcome you to join us at the Annual Chamber Banquet on Monday, April 13, 2026. We have invited guest speakers from key Walnut organizations to share the accomplishments of the past year and what is on the horizon for our town. Reservation details and costs are included on page two.

We invite you to join us in taking a leadership role in our community. Please determine your membership dues from the list below and return them with your check or cash by April 9, 2026.

Thank you for contributing to making our town a better place.

Olivia Lennon, Chamber Director
